The Prince of Ligra."

During the week beginning Monday night the Pagr Players at the Academy will revive a famous farce. "The Prince of Liars." from the pen or Sydney Grupdy, the author of, "The Circus Grupdy, the author of, "The Prince of Liars." is an admirable summer of fering, in that the plot is hight and fancitul enough to afford amisement wilhout any earnest mental concentration on the part of the authore. The management announces a nesational comedy finate for the third gel—attek in staging which has never before been seen in Richmond.

A brief synopsis of the plot follows; Feitx Featherstone, business man, master in his own house and guardian of his sister-in-law, secretly attends a last performance of a camedy which has barely escaped the censor telling his wife that he intends going to a gard party. Mrs. Featherstone, who guies her husband with the soft hand of a seasoned diplomat, taking advantage of her husband's card party, granterstone, early his wife a lecture on disobedience. He writes a note ask-ing her for a midnight interview, and places it in her work-basket. Mrs. Featherstone, having seen her husband's reflection in a mirror at the theatre, gets the note, and answers it in a disguised hand, signing the name of Penclope, her mid. Featherstone, thinking he has put his note in the wrong basket, tries to explain to Penclore. The Martellis have more than one hundred selections from the wrong basket, tries to explain to Penclore, the Martellis have more than one hundred selections from the wrong basket, tries to explain to Penclore, the Martellis have more than one hundred selections from the wrong basket, tries to explain to Penclore, the Martellis have more than one hundred selections from the wrong basket, tries to explain to Penclore.

New Bowling Record.

The Lake bowling alloys made a new give record the past week in the southern champlon duckin tournament; more than 200 individual bowlers aving taken part in the first scores. This is by far the largest entry ever made in this city in a contest of the kind. All of the bowlers made a fine showing, and put up some very high scores.

kind. All of the bowlers made a fine showing, and put up some very high scores.

Neville Blakemore led the list for high score, and captured the first prize.

The following is a list of bowlers who won in the first series: Vaiden Thorpe, Sims, Beck, Balley, Blount, Burns Williams and Kirtney, E. G. Newton formerly manager of the Newport alley, has accepted a position as manager of the Lake alley, and says he will do all in his power to make this tournament one of the greatest ever held in this cily.

Contests will be held every night in the week, and judging from the interest, will prove one of the greatest ever held here.

May Form "Lady" Team.

The lady bowlers are taking great interest in the same. Manager Whitmore is now making every offort to form a tournament among the lady lowlers, which no doubt would prove interesting, as Richmond has many women who can bowl a sood game, and there is no reason why she should not have an organized bowling team, as well as other Southern cities.
